Terms and Conditions

Please read these terms and conditions carefully and retain for reference.

Eligibility and number of submissions.

The exhibition is open to all, works in 2D or 3D must be the original work of the artist and on the subject of nature. Photocopies, cartoons, commercially produced prints, etchings and laser copies of work are not acceptable. Diptychs and Triptychs will be accepted but each work will be treated as one (Diptychs = two pictures, Triptychs = three pictures) and will be charged accordingly. Domestic or pet subjects are not eligible.

There will be a Special Exhibit area (within the theme of the main exhibition) called Natures Myths and Legends please mark your art entry with (NML) for inclusion in this area.

All works, pictures and sculptures should be for sale and work 'Not for sale' cannot be entered. All artists may enter up to and including a maximum of FOUR paintings, but please be aware the space is limited, so artists submitting the maximum number of larger pieces may be unable to have all of them hung (fees will be refunded in these instances). All exhibits must be owned by the artist and cannot be entered by a third party or agent.

Purpose made box canvasses are acceptable unframed, but ordinary canvasses without frames are not. Box canvasses must be at least 35mm depth and should not have staples or tacks down the sides.

If you have any doubts about your entry or intend to submit non-traditional media, please check with the organisers first. All exhibits are subject to the organiser's discretion.

Sales and Copyright

Commission of 30%, (10% in the Art Market) will be deducted from the sale price of all work and should be included and allowed for in the sale price. Works entered but not handed in will not have the fees refunded.

Copyright of all work should remain the property of the artist. Neither Rookesbury Park nor the Organisers will be held responsible for any work exhibited by members that infringes copyright law - the artist is held responsible for the originality of their own work.

NB: you may work from photographs provided you have sole permission to do so in writing or are the copyright owner. You may not include work copied from published photographs. Source material must be made available on request. Non-compliance may result in work not being accepted or removed from the exhibition.

Framing and preparation of work

All pictures must be suitably framed with a cord ready for hanging (wire is not acceptable). Cord should not be visible above the top of the picture or be too tight and should be attached to 'D' rings. Clip frames or frames with unprotected glass edges are not acceptable, nor are mirror plates for hanging. Each painting must be clearly labeled on the back, (sculptures on the base, but not tied on), with the artist's name, the work's title and price. Work that is not properly secure or without hangers and/or cord, or in any way infringes the above will not be hung. All exhibits should be clean and ready to exhibit.

Size and Pricing

There is a maximum height and width restriction of 44 inches (outside edge of frame) for pictures. Pricing must include VAT (if the artist is VAT registered). Sale prices should be to the nearest pound with a minimum price of £100. Pictures larger than 44 inches must supply their own means of display.

Southern Nature Art Exhibition

Insurance, Responsibilities and Security

The organisers will be employing a Security Firm to assist with the security at Rookesbury Park, however Artists are advised to insure their own work, as no responsibility can be taken by Rookesbury Park or the organisers.

Delivery and Collection of work

All paintings must be delivered, unpacked, to Rookesbury Manor on Tuesday, 20th August 2019 between 8.00am and 7.00pm - wrapping cannot be left. Sculptures and 3D work must be left in their wrapping.

Unsold work must be collected from Rookesbury Manor on Monday 26th August 2019 between 6.00pm and 8.00pm, no work can be released early. When collecting your work please leave time to give a hand in taking down the exhibition, more hands make light work.

The organisers will not accept responsibility for works uncollected at the appropriate time.

NB No animals or pets other than assistance animals may be brought into the exhibition premises.*
Overseas artists submitting work should email southernnatureartexhibition@gmail.com for assistance.

Private View Evening

The exhibition will be opened by a special guest at the Private View Evening which will include the Art Market on Friday, 23rd August 2019. Tickets for the Private View Evening will be sent nearer to the exhibition along with an acknowledgement and receipt for your entry. Artists exhibiting do not need tickets for the Private view evening and may bring one guest, please use your tickets for special guests, more tickets are available on application. Please order any additional Private View tickets as early as possible.

Stewarding / Demonstrating

This is the opportunity for you to promote your work and discuss your exhibits with potential buyers, it is a great opportunity to meet other like-minded artists, introduce potential customers to your work and make the public feel welcome when viewing our exhibition. If you can find the time over the week to help with the exhibition, please complete the help wanted form with the times that you can assist, (we need your help and without it, we cannot run the exhibition).

We are looking for artists that would like to sit in the exhibition and demonstrate between 10.00am till 4.00pm for just one, two, three or for all four days, please contact us if you would like to do this.

And Finally.....

The organisers will do their best to hang the paintings and show sculptures to their best advantage. However, time and space are limited and the final display is not open to negotiation. If you have any doubts about entry requirements, please contact Nick Barker or Caroline Pinnells either by phone 01329 282755 or via email southernnatureartexhibition@gmail.com.

It only remains to wish you every success with your work and please, do not forget, to spread the word, about the exhibition. If you have any press or media contacts please would you contact us via email southernnatureartexhibition@gmail.com.
