

Embellishing Gold-leaf with your paintings by Claudia Hahn £65 per person

Inspired by the decorative works of the golden age of illustration and the Arts and Crafts movement, this course will show you how to include gold-leaf with your paintings. It can be used very versatile, either to highlight small areas of your paintings, or bring glow to the complete background. Gold-leaf is a stunning and decorative way to bring a surprising new element and shine to your work.

Participants are asked to bring their own work to embellish it with gold-leaf. Gold leaf can be used on any ground: water colour paper, canvas, boards, wood panels, or even acrylic or glass surfaces.

This course is suitable for absolute beginners as well as advanced participants, but please be aware that working with gold leaf, which comes in thin, fragile sheets, is painstakingly fiddly: you need to bring patience!!
